It includes directives published or approved for publication during the period 1 July 2000 through 30 September 2000. This publication is updated quarterly.

1-5. EXPLANATION OF SECTIONS.

- a. Chapter 2 contains a listing of USFK and EUSA publications, and USFK and Eighth Army (EA) posters.

(1) Publications classified TOP SECRET, SECRET, CONFIDENTIAL, or FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY are identified by the symbols (TS), (S), (C), or (O) preceding the publication number.

USFK Pam 25-30

(3) The abbreviation "Sp" indicates that a special distribution was made. Users must consult the publication for additional information.

b. Chapter 3 contains a listing of--

(1) Current command (USFK, EA, and triheadquarters (THQ)) forms, form letters, and labels which are used command wide and are available through the United States Army Printing and Publications Center, Korea (USAPPCK). According to AR 25-30, paragraph 3-2b(1), these forms require a prescribing directive.

(2) Current headquarters (HQ USFK and HQ EA) forms and form letters are used only by staff elements of HQ USFK and HQ EUSA. The proponent office is responsible for stocking forms and form letters. According to AR 25-30, paragraph 3-2b(2), these forms do not require a prescribing directive.

(3) Obsolete forms. When an approved command form is no longer required, the chief of the proponent agency will send a formal notification of discontinuance to the ACofS, IM, ATTN: EAIM-R-PM, Unit #15236, APO AP 96205-0009.

(d) The letter "(A)" in front of the form number indicates an accountable form.

(e) The letter "(S)" in front of the form number indicates a sensitive form.

(f) An asterisk (*) in front of the form number indicates that a Privacy Act Statement must be included on the form because individuals are required to furnish personal information on the form (AR 340-21).

(g) A plus (+) in front of the form number indicates that previous editions are obsolete.

(h) A number sign (#) in front of the form number indicates that previous editions may be used until exhausted.
